

I am writing in protest to your new regulations eliminating "established business relationship" as an approved qualification for faxes. I frequently send faxes to members on events of interest. The only benefit I can see is that the USPS will regain much of their lost business. Is that your intent?